The screenshot shows a press release on the Nasdaq GlobeNewswire website. The headline is "Synacor Launches New Support Program for 400+ Million Zimbra Open Source Users". The article text includes:

- Marks continued commitment to Open Source Edition of Zimbra
- Creates increased value of open source deployments
- Adds New Zimbra Suite Plus features: Mobile sync, Backup, Storage and Admin tools.

The article is dated September 8, 2016, from Buffalo, N.Y. It mentions that Synacor, Inc. (NASDAQ:SYNC) is a trusted multiresource technology and monetization partner for video, internet and communications providers, device manufacturers and enterprises. The new program is for 400+ million Zimbra open source-based email and collaboration software users. It also notes that Synacor is adding new features to Zimbra Suite Plus, including mobile sync, backup, storage and admin tools. The article concludes with a quote from Himesh Bhasia, CEO of Synacor, and a quote from Brent Rhymes, EVP Channel Sales & Marketing at Synacor.
